Recipients and data transfer

The Company - without needing specific consent - may communicate personal data to other subjects, the categories of which are described in detail below, for example:

- Saipem Group companies, even if not located in the EU (based on the adequacy decisions by the European Commission or on the basis of standard contractual clauses), in order to carry out control and personnel management activities;
- Third parties (by way of indication, companies providing IT services), including those not located within the EU, who carry out outsourcing activities on behalf of the Controller, in their capacity as data processors. The transfer of data to countries outside the EU is guaranteed by the adequacy decisions of the European Commission or on the basis of standard contractual clauses;
- Judicial authorities, as well as those subjects to whom communication is required by law. These subjects will process the data in their capacity as independent Data Controllers.

Your data will not be subject to disclosure.

Data Subjects rights

Data Subjects have the right to ask the Controller for access to their personal data, rectification, deletion or portability of their personal data, integration of incomplete personal data, limitation of processing in the cases provided for by art. 18 GDPR. In addition, where applicable, Data Subjects may revoke their consent at any time.

These rights can be exercised at any time, against the Controller, by sending a specific request in writing to the e-mail addresses dpo@saipem.com or privacy@saipem.com.

Data Subjects have also the right to lodge a complaint to the competent Supervisory Authority and to use other means of protection provided by applicable law.
