

Saipem included in the Dow Jones Sustainability World and Europe Indexes

San Donato Milanese (MI), 7 September 2017 - Saipem has been included in the internationally accredited Dow Jones Sustainability World and Europe Indexes (DJSI), placing among the top companies of the "Energy Equipment Services" sector.

Since 1999, the Dow Jones Sustainability Index has been ranking the companies, selected by the Robeco SAM rating agency, who have distinguished themselves for excellent sustainability performance based on economic, ethical, governance, social and environmental criteria.

Saipem's inclusion in the index confirms the attention the company constantly dedicates to sustainable development and to the responsible management of its business. This is a commitment also acknowledged by Saipem's acceptance into the United Nations Global Compact last year as well as being recently included in the in the FTSE4Good Sustainability Index for the eighth year running.

Stefano Cao, Saipem CEO, commented: "Being included in the Dow Jones Sustainability Index is a source of great satisfaction for us and represents an additional, important acknowledgement of our sustainable business model as well as our responsible way of managing our value chain, key elements of our strategy."

Saipem is one of the world leaders in drilling services, as well as in the engineering, procurement, construction and installation of pipelines and complex projects, onshore and offshore, in the oil & gas market. The company has distinctive competences in operations in harsh environments, remote areas and deepwater. Saipem provides a full range of services with "EPC" and "EPCI" contracts (on a "turn-key" basis) and has distinctive capabilities and unique assets with a high technological content.
