

Saipem confirmed in the Dow Jones Sustainability Index as a leader in the energy equipment services sector

San Donato Milanese (Mi), November 16, 2020 - Saipem has been confirmed for the fourth year running in the Dow Jones Sustainability Index (World and Europe), one of the most important sustainability stock indices, and for the third year running as leader in the "Energy Equipment Services" sector of the same index. This acknowledgement is the outcome of the Corporate Sustainability Assessment managed by S&P Global SAM that in 2020 has evaluated thousands of companies on their policies, strategies and performances on economic, environmental and social issues.

This year Saipem has got a further improvement in its score, emerging in particular on matters like climate strategy, human rights and innovation management.

Saipem was recently the first Italian company in terms of sustainability according to an analysis drawn up by the Wall Street Journal which assessed over 5,500 listed companies from around the world.

Chief Executive Officer, Stefano Cao, commented: "We are all proud in Saipem of this acknowledgement, achieved after such a complex and articulated evaluation. Being aware that we will face important challenges, we can say today that our company is standing out as a global leader in providing solutions for a business that in the post-pandemic age, and in particular during the energy transition, shall be more and more sustainable".

Saipem is a leading company in engineering, drilling and construction of major projects in the energy and infrastructure sectors. It is "One-Company" organized in five business divisions (Offshore E&C, Onshore E&C, Offshore Drilling, Onshore Drilling and XSIGHT, dedicated to conceptual design). Saipem is a global solution provider with distinctive skills and competences and high-tech assets, which it uses to identify solutions aimed at satisfying customer requirements. Listed on the Milan Stock Exchange, it is present in over 70 countries worldwide and has 34 thousand employees of 120 different nationalities.
