

Saipem confirmed in first place among Italian companies in the American ENR ranking of the Top 250 International contractors

The company has obtained 12th place ranking, further improving its position from 2021.

San Donato Milanese (Italy), September 6, 2022 - Saipem has been confirmed in first place among Italian companies in the Top 250 International Contractors Engineering News-Record (ENR) ranking, the leading US magazine for construction and engineering industry professionals.

ENR's Top 250 gathers the most important engineering and construction companies, classifying them on the basis of the revenues deriving from projects executed outside their country of origin with a focus on specific sectors of activity and on different geographical areas.

Saipem placed 12th among international companies, further improving its position from 2021, and ranked first place in the category which includes marine energy infrastructures, pipelines, petrochemical plants and refineries, confirming its 2021 leadership position. At geographical level, the company is positioned at fourth and sixth places respectively for the specific Middle East and Africa rankings.

Saipem's presence in ENR's Top 250 ranking is an important recognition of the company's expertise in the engineering and execution of complex projects, carried out in accordance with the highest environmental sustainability standards.

Saipem is an advanced technological and engineering platform for the design, construction, and operation of complex, safe, and sustainable infrastructures and plants. Always oriented towards technological innovation, Saipem is today committed to working alongside its customers on the frontier of the energy transition with increasingly digital means, technologies and processes oriented from their conception to environmental sustainability. It is listed on the Milan stock exchange and operates in over 70 countries around the world with 32 thousand employees from 130 different nationalities.
